atha maṅgalācaraṇam

caitanya-devam bhagavantam āśraye śrī-vaiṣṇavānām pramude 'ñjasā likhan āvaśyakam karma vicārya sādhubhiḥ sārdham samāhṛtya samasta-sāstrataḥ

atha—now; maṅgalācaraṇam—invoking auspiciousness; caitanya-devam—Lord Caitanya-deva; bhagavantam—the Supreme Personality of Godhead; āśraye—I take shelter; śrī-vaiṣṇavānām—of the devotees; pramude—for the pleasure; āñjasā—properly; likhan—writing; āvaśyakam—compulsory; karma—work; vicārya—considering; sādhubhiḥ—the devotees; sārdham—with; samāhṛtya—collecting; samasta—from all; sāstrataḥ—the scriptures.

Invoking Auspiciousness

As, reflecting on what activities must be performed, and with the help of the devotees collecting many quotes from all the scriptures, I write this book for the devotees' pleasure, I take shelter of Lord Caitanya-deva

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

*brahmādi-śakti-pradam īśvaram tam dātum sva-bhaktim kṛpayāvatiṇam caitanya-devam śaraṇam prāpadye
yasya prasādāt sva-vaśe 'rtha-siddhiḥ*

I take shelter of Lord Caitanya-deva, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, who empowers Brahmā and the demigods, who descended to this world to give His own devotional service, and whose mercy allows His devotees to conquer Him and bring Him under their control.

*likhyate bhagavad-bhaktivilāsasya yathā-mati
ṭikā dig-darśinī nāma
tad-ekāmsārtha-bodhini*

This commentary, which bears the name Dig-darśinī ṭikā (A Commentary That Shows the Direction), and which explains a small portion of the Hari-bhakti-vilāsa, has been written as far as I am able.

As I begin the difficult task of writing this book, in order to attain a good result I first take shelter of my parama-guru, my worshipable Deity, Lord Caitanya. The name Caitanya means the Supreme Personality of Godhead, who is the form of pure knowledge (cit), who is worshiped by all the universes, and who among all Deities has the most perfect transcendental knowledge. Or, another meaning of the name Caitanya is the Supreme Personality of Godhead, who stays in everyone's heart (citta). Or, another meaning of the name Caitanya is the Supreme Personality of Godhead, who gives life (cetanā) to all living entities. I take shelter of Him, Lord Caitanya, the master of my life.

Why do I write this book? I write to describe the activities that should be performed by the saintly devotees of Lord Viṣṇu. Why else do I write? I write to please them.

Someone may ask: How can a fallen person like you be successful in such a task? I reply: I shall be successful because I take shelter of the Supreme Personality of Godhead, who has all powers and opulences, who has a great host of virtues, beginning with His great mercy, and who Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 1.3.28 reveals is Lord Kṛṣṇa. In this way three parts of this verse are explained. By taking shelter of Lord Caitanya Mahāprabhu I will be successful in this task. That is the meaning here.

Furthermore, it is by His power, by His order, and by His glory that I am engaged in this task. I do not write by my own wish. I do not write to glorify myself.

In my opinion the perfect name of the Supreme Personality of Godhead is Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu. By taking shelter of His mercy this book is not at all difficult to write. Indeed, everything is done very easily. That is the meaning.

Here someone may object: All these things have already been described in the Vedas, Smṛti, Purāṇas, Āgamas, and other scriptures. Why should you write something more? To this I reply: I will gather quotes from all the scriptures and put each quote in its appropriate place. That is how I will write this book.

bhakteḥ vilāsānś cinute prabodhānandasya śiṣyo bhagavat-priyasya gopāla-bhaṭṭo raghunātha-dāsam santoṣayan rūpa-sanātanau ca

bhakteḥ—of devotional service; vilāsān—the pastimes; cinute—gathers; prabodhānandasya—of Prabodhānanda Sarasvatī; śiṣyaḥ—the disciple; bhagavat—to the Lord; priyasya—dear; gopāla-bhaṭṭaḥ—Gopāla Bhaṭṭa Gosvāmī; raghunātha-dāsam—Raghunātha dāsa Gosvāmī; santoṣayan—pleasing; rūpa—Rūpa Gosvāmī; sanātanau—Sanātana Gosvāmī; ca—and.

Śrīla Gopāla Bhaṭṭa Gosvāmī, who pleased Śrīla Rūpa Gosvāmī, Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī, and Śrīla Raghunātha dāsa Gosvāmī, and who was a disciple of Lord Caitanya's dear devotee, Śrīla Prabodhānanda Sarasvatī, first collected these pastimes of devotional service.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

The pastimes of devotional service are this book, Śrī Hari-bhakti-vilāsa.

*mathurā-nātha-pādābjaprema-bhakti-vilāsataḥ
jātaṁ bhakti-vilāsākhyam
tad-bhaktāḥ śīlayantv imam*

mathurā—of Mathurā; nātha—of the master; pādābja—for the lotus feet; prema—love; bhakti—and devotion; vilāsataḥ—from the pastimes; jātam—born; bhakti-vilāsākhyam—named Bhakti-vilāsa; tad-bhaktāḥ—His devotees; śīlayantv—may study; imam—this.

May the devotees of the Lord carefully study this Hari-bhakti-vilāsa, which has come from a person who enjoys splendid pastimes of love and devotion for the lotus feet of Mathurā's master.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

The compound word mathurā-nātha-pādābja-prema-bhakti-vilāsataḥ may mean either "the book Hari-bhakti-vilāsa has come from the playful happiness of Śrīla Gopāla Bhaṭṭa Gosvāmī, who is filled with love and devotion for Mathurā's master," or "the book Hari-bhakti-vilāsa has come from Śrīla Gopāla Bhaṭṭa Gosvāmī, who who enjoys splendid pastimes of love and devotion for the lotus feet of Mathurā's master."

The devotees here are like bumblebees at the lotus feet of Mathurā's master. If the alternate reading "sobhayantu" is accepted, then the text reads, "the devotees of the Lord are glorious because they are faultless and because they always hear and chant the glories of the Lord." If the reading alanīkurvantu is accepted, then the text reads, "the devotees of the Lord are decorated with all virtues, beginning with humbleness."

jīyāsur ātyantika-bhakti-niṣṭhaḥ śrī-vaiṣṇavā māthura-maṇḍale 'tra kāśīśvaraḥ kṛṣṇa-vane cakastu śrī-kṛṣṇa-dāsaś ca sa-lokanāthaḥ

jīyāsuḥ—all glories; ātyantika-bhakti-niṣṭhaḥ—to they who have great faith and devotion; śrī-vaiṣṇavā—the devotees of Lord Viṣṇu; māthura—of Mathurā; maṇḍale—in the circle; atra—here; kāśīśvaraḥ—Kāśīśvara; kṛṣṇa-vane—in Lord Kṛṣṇa's forest; cakastu—manifest; śrī-kṛṣṇa-dāsaḥ—Kṛṣṇa dāsa; ca—and; sa-lokanāthaḥ—with Lokanātha.

All glories to the great devotees here in Lord Kṛṣṇa's forest within Māthura-maṇḍala! May Kāśīśvara, Kṛṣṇadāsa, and Lokanātha appear before me.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

Tasting the nectar of devotional service to the lotus feet of Mathurā's master, the devotees happily live in the land of Mathurā. In Śrī Gopāla-tāpanī Upaniṣad, Vṛndāvana is called "the forest of Lord Kṛṣṇa". In that forest the devotees happily enjoy pastimes of hearing and chanting Lord Kṛṣṇa's glories. The words sa-lokanāthaḥ (with Lokanātha) indicates the close friendship between Kṛṣṇadāsa Kavirāja and Lokanātha Gosvāmī. It was in the company of the devotees mentioned here that this book was written.

tatra—there; guru—of the spiritual master; upasatti—approach; kāraṇam—the cause; kṛpayā—by the mercy; kṛṣṇadevasya—of Lord Kṛṣṇadeva; tad-bhakta-jana-saṅgataḥ—by the association of His devotees; bhakteḥ—of devotional service; mähātmyam—the glory; ākarṇya—hearing; tām—that; icchan—desiring; sad-gurum—a bona-fide spiritual master; bhajet—should worship.

The Reason Why One Should Take Shelter of a Genuine Spiritual Master

By the mercy of Lord Kṛṣṇadeva hearing, in the company of the devotees, the glories of pure devotional service, and yearning to attain that service, one should take shelter of a bona-fide spiritual master.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

It is by the mercy of Lord Kṛṣṇadeva that one attains the association of the devotees. Devotional service is more glorious than liberation. The word bhajet here means “one should take shelter”.

*atrānubhūyate nityam
duḥkha-śreṇī paratra ca

titīṣed api tām sudhīḥ*

atra—here; anubhūyate—is experienced; nityam—always; duḥkha-śreṇī—a series of sufferings; paratra—in the next life; ca—and; duḥsahā—unbearable; śrūyate—is heard; sāstrāt—from scripture; tītīrṣet—should desire to cross beyond; api—and; tām—that; sudhīḥ—an intelligent person.

In this lifetime one experiences a succession of sufferings, and in the next life one is likely to experience another unbearable series of sufferings. Hearing this truth from the scriptures, an intelligent person will yearn to leave the world of birth and death.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

Here someone may ask: How can ordinary people, who are attached to material sense-happiness, desire to attain devotional service? To this I reply: Desiring to escape the ocean of material sufferings, one will desire to attain devotional service, and thus one will take shelter of a bona-fide spiritual master. This action will be taken by an intelligent person. A person who cannot understand that material life means continued material sufferings is not intelligent. He is like an animal. It may be that such a person is like a hunter or other great sinner, and that is why he has lost his intelligence.

tathā—so; ca—and; uktam—spoken; ekādaśa-skandhe—in the Eleventh Canto; bhagavatā—by the Supreme Personality of Godhead; śrī-dattena—Śrī Dattātreya; labdhvā—attaining; su-durlabham—very rare; idam—this; bahu-sambhavānte—after many births; mānuṣyam—human; artha-dam—giving benefits; anityam—temporary; api—although; iha—here; dhīraḥ—intelligent; tūrṇam—quickly; yateta—should strive; na—not; pated—should fall; anu-mṛtyu—the series of deaths; yāvat—as long as; niḥśreyasāya—for the best; viśayaḥ—the material sense objects; khalu—indeed; sarvataḥ—in all respects; syāt—is.

This fact is affirmed by the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Śrī Dattātreya in the following words (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 11.9.29):

"After many, many births and deaths one achieves the rare human form of life, which, although temporary, affords one the opportunity to attain the highest perfection. Thus, a sober human being should immediately endeavor for the ultimate perfection in life and not fall down into the cycle of repeated birth and death. After all, sense gratification is available even in the most abominable species of life, whereas Kṛṣṇa consciousness is only possible for a human being."*

The Supreme Personality of Godhead Himself declares (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 11.20.17):

"The human body, which can award all benefit in life, is automatically obtained by the laws of nature, although it is a very rare achievement. This human body can be compared to a perfectly constructed boat having the spiritual master as the captain and the instructions of the Supreme Personality of Godhead as favorable winds impelling it on its course. Considering all these advantages, a human being who does not utilize his human life to cross the ocean of material existence must be considered the killer of his own soul."*

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

This verse is spoken by Lord Kṛṣṇa, who is the original Supreme Personality of Godhead, as is described in Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 1.3.28. The word ādyam here means "the root of all auspicious results." The human life is attained after many pious deeds. Without many millions of struggles it is not possible to attain a human birth. Still, it seems to come of its own accord.

One Should Take Shelter of a Bona-fide Spiritual Master

Śrī Prabhuddha, the great master of yoga, explained (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 11.3.21):

"Therefore any person who seriously desires real happiness must seek a bona-fide spiritual master and take shelter of him by initiation. The qualification of the bona-fide guru is that he has realized the conclusions of the scriptures by deliberation and is able to convince others of these conclusions. Such great personalities, who have taken shelter of the Supreme Godhead, leaving aside all material considerations, should be understood to be bona-fide spiritual masters."*

anyathā—otherwise; dvayoḥ—of them both; api—also; mahā-doṣaḥ—great faults; śrī-nārada-pañcarātre—in Śrī Nārada-pañcarātra; yaḥ—one who; vākti—speaks; nyāya-rahitaṁ—without logic; anyāyena—without logic; śṛṇoti—hears; yaḥ—who; tāv—both; ubhau—both; narakam̐—to hell; ghoram̐—terrible; vrajataḥ—go; kālam̐—time; akṣayam—without end.

A Great Fault on Both Sides

In Śrī Nārada-pañcarātra it is said:

"A spiritual master who speaks wrongly, without logic, and a disciple who hears wrongly, without logic, both go to a terrible hell for a long time that seems not to end."

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

A disciple who does not properly examine his spiritual master before initiation, or who does not properly serve him, commits a great fault. This verse describes a situation where either the disciple or the spiritual master did not properly test the other before initiation.

tatra—there; śrī-vāsudevasya—of Lord Vāsudeva; sarva-deva-śiromaṇeḥ—the crest jewel of all Deities; pāda—feet; ambhujajika—lotus; eka—one; bhāg—possessing; eva—indeed; dikṣā—initiation; grāhyā—should be accepted; manīṣibhiḥ— by the wise.

The wise should accept initiation, for in this way they are able to attain the lotus feet of Lord Kṛṣṇa, who is the crest jewel of all Deities, as the only treasure of their lives.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

After initiation the disciple should worship the lotus feet of Lord Kṛṣṇa, surrender to them, and take shelter of them. To fail to do this is very foolish.

The Glories of the Supreme Personality of Godhead

In Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (1.2.23) it is said:

"The transcendental Personality of Godhead is indirectly associated with the three modes of material nature, namely passion, goodness, and ignorance, and just for the material world's creation maintenance, and destruction He accepts the qualitative forms of Brahmā, Viṣṇu, and Śiva. Of these three, all human beings can derive ultimate benefit form Viṣṇu, the form of the quality of goodness."*

pādme vaiśākha-māhātmye—in the Padma Purāṇa, Vaiśākha-māhātmya; yama-brāhmaṇa-samvāde—in the conversation of Yama and a brāhmaṇa; vyamohāya—for bewilderment; carācarasya—with moving and unmoving beings; jagataḥ—of the universe; te te—whoever; purāṇāgamāḥ—the Purāṇas and Agamas; tām tām—them; eva—indeed; hi—certainly; devatām—the Supreme Personality of Godhead; paramikām—desired; jalpantu—may chant; kalpa—the kalpa; āvadhi—until the end; siddhānte—in the conclusion; punar—again; eka—one; eva—indeed; bhagavān—Supreme Personality of Godhead; viṣṇuḥ—Lord Viṣṇu; samasta—all; āgama—Agamas; vyāpāreṣu—in actions; vivecana—conclusion; vyatikaram—joint; nīteṣu—brought; niścīyate—is concluded.

In the Padma Purāṇa, Vaiśākha-māhātmya, in the conversation of Yama and a brāhmaṇa, it is said:

"In order to fool the moving and unmoving beings in the universe, the Purāṇas and Agamas pretended to spend an entire kalpa debating the true identity of the Supreme Personality of Godhead. At the end they came to this conclusion: Lord Viṣṇu is the Supreme."

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

The debate of the scriptures here was only a joke on their part. They all knew what the conclusion would be.

sahasra-nāma-stotrādau
ślokaughā santi cedṛśāḥ
viśeṣataḥ sattva-niṣṭhaiḥ
sevyo viṣṇur na cāparaḥ

sahasra-nāma-stotrādau—in the beginning of the Sahasra-nāma prayers; śloka—of verses; aughāḥ—floods; santi—are; ca—and; īdṛśāḥ—like this; viśeṣataḥ—specifically; sattva-niṣṭhaiḥ—by they who are in the mode of goodness; sevyāḥ—to be served; viṣṇuḥ—Lord Viṣṇu; na—not; ca—and; aparaḥ—another.

In the Sahasra-nāma and other prayers there is a great flood of verses like these, verses affirming the they who are in the mode of pure goodness should worship Lord Viṣṇu and no one else.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

In the Bṛhat-sahasra-nāma-stotra, Lord Śiva affirms:

nāvaiṣṇavāya dātavyam
vikalpopahatātmane
bhakti-śraddhā-vihīnāya
viṣṇu-sāmānya-darśine

"These thousand names should not be given to one who is not a devotee of Lord Viṣṇu, to one whose heart is destroyed by mental speculation, to one who has no faith in devotional service, or to one who thinks the demigods are equal to Lord Viṣṇu."

At the end of those prayers Goddess Durgā also affirms:

aho sarveśvaro viṣṇuḥ
sarva-devottamottamaḥ
jagad-ādi-gurur mūḍhaiḥ
sāmānya iva vikṣyate

"Lord Viṣṇu is the Supreme Personality of Godhead, the master of all the demigods, the first spiritual master of the universe. Only fools think the demigods are His equals."

Lord Śiva again affirms:

na yānti tat-param śreyo
viṣṇum sarveśvareśvaram
sarva-bhāvair anāśritya
purāṇam puruṣottamam

"They who do not wholeheartedly take shelter of Lord Viṣṇu, the master of all the demigods, the ancient Supreme Personality of Godhead, do not attain the most auspicious condition of life."

tam eva tapasā nityam
bhajāmi staumi cintaye
tenādvitīya-mahimā
jagat-pūjyo 'smi pārvati

"With great austerities I worship Him always. I glorify Him. I meditate on Him. O Pārvatī, it is only because I always chant His peerless glories that I am worshiped in this world."

In the description of the Lord's holy names it is said:

sarva-devaika-saraṇam
sarva-devaika-devatam
sūrya-koṭi-pratīkāśo
yama-koṭi-durāsadaḥ

"Lord Viṣṇu is the the shelter of all the demigods. He is the master of all the demigods. He is more splendid than many millions of suns. He is more invincible than many millions of Yamas."

brahma-koṭi-jagat-sraṣṭā
vāyu-koṭi-mahā-balaḥ koṭīndu-jagad-ānandī

śambhu-koṭi-maheśvaraḥ

"He is the creator of many millions of Brahmās and universes. He is stronger than many millions of Vāyus. His happinesses are greater than those of many millions of Indras. He is more powerful than many millions of Śivas."

At the end of the Brhat-sahasra-nāma, Goddess Durgā says:

aho bata mahat kaṣṭam
samasta-sukhade harau
vidyamāne 'pi sarveṣe
mūdhāḥ kliśyanti saṁsṛtau

"Ah! How sad it is! Even though Lord Kṛṣṇa, who is the controller of all, and who yearns to give happiness to everyone, is personally present, the fools insist that they must continue to suffer in this world of birth and death."

yam uddīśya sadā nātho
maheśo 'pi dīg-ambaraḥ
jaṭā-bhāsmānuliptāṅgas
tapasvī vīkṣate janaiḥ

"It is to attain Lord Viṣṇu that the demigod Śiva performs austerities, his hair matted and his naked body covered with ashes. That is why the people see Lord Śiva in that way."

tato 'dhiko 'sti ko devo
lakṣmī-kāntān madhu-dviṣaḥ

"What demigod is superior to Lord Kṛṣṇa, the husband of the goddess of fortune, the killer of the demon Madhu?"

In the beginning of the Laghu-sahasra-nāma it is said:

paramam yo mahat-tejah
paramam yo mahat-tapaḥ
paramam yo mahad brahma
paramam yo parāyaṇam

"Lord Viṣṇu is the most powerful. He is the most glorious. He is the Supreme Brahman. Attaining Him is the supreme goal of life."

pavitrāṇām pavitraṁ yo maṅgalānām ca maṅgalam
daivataṁ devatānām ca
bhūtānām yo 'vyayaḥ pitā

"He is the purest of the pure. He is the most auspicious of the auspicious. He is the master of the demigods. He is the eternal father of all that live."

At the end of the Laghu-sahasra-nāma it is said:

dyauiḥ sa-candrārka-nakṣatrā
kham diśo bhūr mahodadhiḥ vāsudevasya vīryeṇa
vidhṛtāni mahātmanaḥ

"It is by the power of Lord Vāsudeva that the sky, sun, moon, stars, ether, directions, earth, and the great oceans are established in their places."

tathā—so; ca—and hari-vaṁśe—in the Hari-vaṁśa; śrī-śiva-vākyam—the statement of Lord Śiva; hariḥ—Lord Kṛṣṇa; eva—indeed; sadā—always; ārādhyah—to be worshiped; bhavadbhiḥ—by you; sattva-samsthitaiḥ—situated in the mode of goodness; viṣṇu-mantram—the mantras of Lord Viṣṇu; sadā—always; viprāḥ—O brāhmaṇas; paṭhadhvam you should chant; dhyāta—you should meditate; keśavam—on Lord Kṛṣṇa; iti—thus.

In the Hari-vaṁśa, Lord Śiva says:

"O brāhmaṇas in the mode of pure goodness, please always worship Lord Kṛṣṇa. Please always chant the mantras of Lord Kṛṣṇa. Please always meditate on Lord Kṛṣṇa."

Now I will write explaining the glories of some specific mantras of Lord Viṣṇu. I will begin by glorifying the Śrī Gopāla-mantra.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

Here someone may ask: Why do you begin by describing the worship of the eighteen-syllable Gopāla-mantra? Why do you not begin with some other mantra?

To this I reply, lord Gopāla is the original Supreme Personality of Godhead, the source of all incarnations. Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 1.3.28 explains:

kṛṣṇas tu bhagavān svayam

"Lord Śrī Kṛṣṇa is the original Personality of Godhead."*

The various incarnations of the Lord are very glorious, but the original form of the Lord, the source of the incarnations, is the most glorious.

The Glory of the Regal Nṛsimha-mantra in the Meter Anuṣṭubh

In the Nṛsimha-tāpanī Upaniṣad it is said:

"The demigods approached Lord Brahmā and said: Please describe to us the result of chanting the regal Nṛsimha-mantra in the meter anuṣṭubh.

"Lord Brahmā replied: One who regularly chants the regal Nṛsimha-mantra in the meter anuṣṭubh becomes pure like the demigods. He becomes pure like fire. He becomes pure like the wind. He becomes pure like the sun. He becomes pure like the moon. He becomes pure like the truth. He becomes pure like Brahmā. He becomes pure like Viṣṇu. He becomes pure like Śiva. He becomes purified of all sins."

"Then, on the first, third, eleventh, ninth, second, fourth, twelfth, tenth, sixth, eighth, sixteenth, fourteenth, fifth, seventh, fifteenth, third and first parts of the four-sided figure, the intelligent spiritual master should write the letters of the alphabet, one after another.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

In the first part he should write the Sanskrit letter a, in the third part the letter ā, in the eleventh i, and so forth. Completing the vowels, he should continue with the consonants, beginning in the first place with the letter k.

Text 203

*janmarkṣākṣarato vikṣya punaḥ—again; koṣṭhaka-koṣṭheṣu—on the lines of the four-sided figure; savyataḥ—on the left; janma-bhā—of the birth-star; akṣarāt—from the letter; siddha-sādhyā-su-siddhāri—siddha, sādhyā, su-siddha, and ari; kramāt—one after the other; jñeyā—may be known; vicakṣaṇaiḥ—by the wise.

Then, to the left of the letters of the birth star, one after the other, the wise one should know siddha, sādhyā, su-siddha, and ari.

Text 205

*siddhaḥ sidhyati kālena
sādhyas tu japa-homataḥ
su-siddho graha-mātreṇa
arir mūla-nikṛntanaḥ*

siddhaḥ—siddha; sidhyati—becomes perfect; kālena—in time; sādhyah—sādhyā; tu—indeed; japa-homataḥ—by japa and yajna; su-siddhaḥ—su-siddha; graha-mātreṇa—simply by accepting; ariḥ—ari; mūla-nikṛntanaḥ—cutting at the root.

Siddha is that in time one attains perfection. Sādhyā is attained by japa and yajña. Su-siddha is simply by accepting. Ari is cutting at the root.

Text 206

Offering Incense

One should place the incense below and offer it with a mudrā as one rings the bell with his left hand and chants the Lord's glories.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

One should offer the incense with the mantra, "eṣa dhūpo namaḥ" (Here is some incense. I offer my obeisances to You). One should place the incense on the ground before the Lord and raise it to the Lord's navel. In the same way one should offer a fragrant and unbroken flower and chant the mantra "ghaṇṭām ca svāhā, astrāya phat".

The Proper Method To Do This

Facing north one should offer part of the remnants of the Lord's meal by chanting the mantra:

sarva-deva-svarūpāya
parāya parameṣṭhine
śrī-kṛṣṇa-seva-yuktāya
viṣvakṣenāya te namaḥ

"O Viṣvakṣena, O master of the demigods, O master engaged in Lord Kṛṣṇa's service, obeisances to you!"

After reciting this mantra one should on the left offer a one-hundredth or a one-thousandth portion of the water that washed Lord Hari's feet. Otherwise everything is useless.

vārāhe-in the Varāha Purāṇa; brāhmaṇaḥ-a brāhmaṇa; vasudevārtham-for Lord Kṛṣṇa's sake; gāyamānaḥ-singing; anīsam-always; param-best; samyak-completely; tāla-prayogena-with rhythm; sannipātena-by placing; vā-or; punaḥ-again; nava varṣa-sahasrāṇi-9,000 years; nava varṣa-śatāni-900 years; ca-and; kuvera-bhavanam-the abode of Kuvera; gatvā-going; modate-enjoys; vai-indeed; yadrcchayā-spontaneously; kuvera-bhavanāt-from Kuvera's abode; bhraṣṭaḥ-fallen; svacchanda-gamanālayaḥ-going wherever he wishes; phalam-result; āpnoti-attains; su-śroṇi-O girl with the beautiful thighs; mama-of Me; karma-parāyaṇaḥ-devoted to the work.

In the Varāha Purāṇa, the Supreme Personality of Godhead says:

"A brāhmaṇa who with graceful rhythms always sings songs to please Lord Kṛṣṇa enjoys in Kuvera's abode for 9,900 years, and when he falls down from there he may go wherever he wishes. O girl with the beautiful thighs, a person who is devoted to serving Me attains the greatest benefit.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

The greatest benefit here means that he attains the spiritual world of Vaikuṅṭha.

A wise devotee should bow down, keeping Garuḍa on one's right. One should bow down three times. If one is able, he should bow down many times.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

Garuḍa stands facing the Lord, so if Garuḍa is at one's right, then the Lord is at one's left. One should not bow down keeping the Lord at one's right. One also should not bow down directly facing the Lord. As one is forbidden to circumambulate only once, so also one is forbidden to bow down only once. One should bow down three times. If one is able, he should bow down many times: six times, eight times, or 108 times. The more times the better.

Śrīpada Śaṅkarācārya explains:

"O Lord, when we meet I will be Your property, but You will not be my property. A wave is part of the ocean, but the ocean is not part of the wave."

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

Living in the material world, one is separated from the Supreme Lord. When a person becomes enlightened with spiritual knowledge he is not longer separated from the Lord. This verse gives a good example to describe the truth that the living entities are simultaneously one and different from the Lord.

The Glories of Offering Oneself to the Lord

In Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (7.6.26) Prahlāda Mahārāja explains:

"Religion, economic development, and sense gratification: these are described in the Vedas as tri-varga, or three ways to salvation. Within these three categories are education and self realization, ritualistic ceremonies performed according to Vedic injunction, logic, the science of law and order, and the various means of earning one's livelihood. These are the external subject matters of study in the Vedas, and therefore I consider them material. However, I consider surrender to the lotus feet of Lord Viṣṇu to be transcendental."*

"O Lord, as the fools love material sense objects, let me always love and remember You. May love for You never leave my heart."

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

If the last word is divided "māpa sarpatu", the word "mā" may mean "the goddess of fortune, and "pa" may mean "husband". Thus the word māpa" means "O husband of the goddess of fortune". Interpreted in this way the verse means:

"O husband of the goddess of fortune, the fools love material sense objects. Please let me always remember You. May the love for material sense objects leave my heart."

Offenses

In the Agama-śāstra it is said:

"1. One should not enter the temple of the Deity in a car or palanquin or with shoes on the feet, 2. One should not fail to observe the various festivals for the pleasure of the Supreme Personality of Godhead, such as Janmāṣṭamī and Rathayātrā, 3. One should not avoid bowing down before the Deity, . . .*

. . . 4. One should not enter the temple to worship the Lord without having washed one's hands and feet after eating, 5. one should not enter the temple in a contaminated state, (According to Vedic scripture, if someone dies in the family the whole family becomes contaminated for some time, according to its status. For example, if the family is brāhmaṇa their contamination period is twelve days, for the ksatriyas and vaiśyas it is fifteen days, and for the sūdras thirty days.) 6. One should not bow down on one hand, 7. One should not circumambulate in front of Śrī Kṛṣṇa, (the process of circumambulating the temple is that one should begin circumambulating from the Deity's right-hand side of the temple and come round. Such circumambulation should be performed outside the temple structure at least three times daily.) . . .*

This formula prescribed by the Lord is universally applicable, even for the poorest man. But that does not mean that one who has sufficient means to worship the Lord very nicely should also adopt this method and try to satisfy the Lord simply by offering water and a leaf. If he has sufficient means, he should offer nice decorations, nice flowers, and nice foodstuffs and observe all ceremonies. It is not that one should try to satisfy the Supreme Lord with a little water and a leaf, and for himself spend all his money in sense gratification.), 25. śrī-kūrma-purāṇe

na viṣṇv-ārādhanaṁ puṇyam
vidyate karma vaidikam
tasmād anādi-madhyāntam
nityam ārādhayed dharim

atha-now; śrī-bhagavad-arcana-mahātmyam-the glory of worshipping the Supreme Personality of Godhead; śrī-kūrma-purāṇe-in the Kūrma Purāṇa; na-not; viṣṇv-ārādhanaṁ-than the worship of Lord Viṣṇu; puṇyam-piety; vidyate-is; karma-work; vaidikam-Vedic; tasmād-from that; anādi-without beginning; madhya-middle; antam-or end; nityam-eternal; ārādhayet-should worship; dharim-Lord Hari.

The Glory of Worshipping the Supreme Personality of Godhead

In the Kūrma Purāṇa it is said:

"No work described in the Vedas is more sacred than the worship of Lord Viṣṇu. Therefore one should always worship Lord Viṣṇu, who has no beginning, middle, or end."

Text 177

tatra-there; eva-indeed; śrī-bhagavad-uktau-in the words of the Supreme Personality of Godhead; na-not; me-on Me; dhyāna-rataḥ-devoted to meditation; samyag- yoginaḥ-practiced in yoga; parituṣṭaye-for pleasing; tatha-so; bhavanti-are; devarṣe-O Narada; kriyā-yoga-ratā-engaged in devotional service; yathā-as.

In the Viṣṇu-rahasya, the Supreme Personality of Godhead explains:

"They who follow the yoga of meditation do please Me as much as they who follow the yoga of work.

Text 180

kriyā-yogo hi me 'bhiṣṭaḥ
para-yogāt svanuṣṭhitāt
tuṣṭir me sambhavet pumbhir bhaktimadbhir amatsaraiḥ

kriyā-yogaḥ-following the yoga of work; hi-indeed; me-of me; abhiṣṭaḥ-pleased; para-yogāt-than the best yoga; svanuṣṭhitāt-properly situated; tuṣṭiḥ-pleasure; me-of me; sambhavet-is; pumbhiḥ-by people; bhaktimadbhiḥ-with devotion; amatsaraiḥ-without envy.

"One who follows the yoga of work pleases Me more than other yogis. I am pleased by they who love Me and are free from envy and hatred,

Text 181

ye 'rcayanti narā nityam
kriyā-yoga-ratāḥ svayam
dhyāyanti ye ca mām nityam teṣām śreṣṭhāḥ kriyā mataḥ

ye-who; arcayanti-worship; narā-people; nityam-always; kriyā-yoga-ratāḥ-engaged in the yoga of work; svayam-personally; dhyāyanti-meditate; ye-eho; ca-and; mām-on me; nityam-always; teṣām-of them; śreṣṭhāḥ-the best; kriyā-in work; mataḥ-considered.

"They who always worship me and think of Me are the best of they who follow the yoga of work.

Text 182

kriyā-hīnasya devarṣe
tathā dhyānam na muktidam
na tathā mām vidur vipra
dhyāninas tattvato vinā kriyā-hīnasya-without work; devarṣe-O Narada; tathā-so; dhyānam-meditation; na-not; muktidam-gives liberation; na-not; tathā-so; mām-Me; viduḥ-know; vipra-O brāhmaṇa; dhyāninaḥ-meditating; tattvataḥ-in truth; vinā-without; kriyā-yoga-ratāḥ-following the yoga of work; samyag-properly; labhante-attain; mām-Me; samādhinā-in the trance of meditation.

"O Nārada, without working for My sake, meditation does not give liberation. O brāhmaṇa, they who only meditate cannot understand Me in truth. They who work for My sake become rapt in a trance of meditation on Me and thus they attain Me.

Text 183

yathā hi kāmadaṁ nṛṇāṁ
mama tuṣṭi-karaṁ param
bhakti-yogaṁ mahā-puṇyam
bhukti-mukti-pradaṁ śubham

yathā-as; hi-indeed; kāmadaṁ-fulfilling desires; nṛṇāṁ-of the people; mama-of Me; tuṣṭi-karam-pleasing; param-great; bhakti-yogaṁ-the yoga of devotional service; mahā-puṇyam-very sacred; bhukti-mukti-pradam-giving happiness and liberation; śubham-auspicious.

"The sacred and auspicious yoga of devotional service pleases me and fulfills the devotee's desires. It brings happiness and liberation.

Text 184

samvatsareṇa yat puṇyam
labhante dhyānino mama

In the Adi Purāṇa it is said:

"No meditation is equal to working for the Supreme Personality of Godhead. No result is equal to that obtained by working for the Supreme Personality of Godhead. No renunciation is equal to working for the Supreme Personality of Godhead. No austerity is equal to working for the Supreme Personality of Godhead. No piety is equal to working for the Supreme Personality of Godhead. No destination is equal to that obtained by working for the Supreme Personality of Godhead."

caturtha-skandhe-in the Fourth Canto; śrī-prthūktau-in the words of Śrī Pṛthu; yat-pāda-whose lotus feet; sevā-service; abhiruciḥ-inclination; tapasvinām-persons undergoing severe penances; aśeṣa-innumerable; janma-births; upacitam-acquire; malam-dirtiness; dhīyaḥ-mind; sadyaḥ-immediately; kṣinoti-destroys; anv-aham-day after day; edhatī-increasing; satī-being; yathā-as; padānguṣṭha-the toes of His lotus feet; viniḥsṛtā-emanating from; sarit-water.

In Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (4.21.31), King Pṛthu explains:

"By the inclination to serve the lotus feet of the Supreme Personality of Godhead, suffering humanity can immediately cleanse the dirt which has accumulated in their minds during innumerable births. Like the Ganges water, which emanates from the toes of the lotus feet of the Lord, such a process immediately cleanses the mind, and thus spiritual or Kṛṣṇa consciousness gradually increases."*

ṣaṣṭha-skandhe-in the Sixth Canto; ajāmilopakhyāne-in the story of Ajāmila; ayam-this person (Ajāmila); hi-indeed; kṛta-nirveśaḥ-has undergone all kinds of atonement; janma-of births; koti-of millions; amhasām-for the sinful activities; api-even; yat-because; vyajahāra-he has chanted; vivaśaḥ-in a helpless condition; nāma-the holy name; svasty-ayanam-the means of liberation; hareḥ-of the Supreme Personality of Godhead.

In Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (6.2.7, 6.2.9-11, 6.2.14-15, and 6.2.18), in the story of Ajāmila, it is said:

"Ajāmila has already atoned for all his sinful actions. Indeed, he has atoned not only for the sins performed in one life but for those performed in millions of lives, for in a helpless condition he chanted the holy name of Nārāyaṇa. Even though he did not chant purely, he chanted without offense, and therefore he is now pure and eligible for liberation."*

"The chanting of the holy name of Lord Viṣṇu is the best process of atonement for a thief of gold or other valuables, for a drunkard, for one who betrays a friend or relative, or for one who indulges in sex with the wife of his guru or other superior. It is also the best method of atonement for one who murders women, the king, or his father, for one who slaughters cows, and for all other sinful men. Simply by chanting the holy name of Lord Viṣṇu, such sinful persons may attract the attention of the Supreme Lord, who therefore considers, 'Because this man has chanted My holy name, My duty is to give him protection.'*

prārabdha-sins already performed; vināśitvam-destroying; ṣaṣṭha-skandhe-in the Sixth Canto; na-not; ataḥ-therefore; param-better means; karma-nibandha-the obligation to suffer or undergo tribulations as a result of fruitive activities; kṛntanam-that which can completely cut off; mumuṣatām-of persons desiring to get out of the clutches of material bondage; tīrtha-pada-about the Supreme Personality of Godhead, at whose feet all the holy places stand; anukīrtanāt-then constantly chanting under the direction of the bona-fide spiritual master; na-not; yat-because; punaḥ-again; karmasu-in fruitive activities; sajjate-becomes attached; manaḥ-the mind; rajas-tamobhyām-by the modes of passion and ignorance; kalilam-contaminated; tataḥ-thereafter; anyathā-by any other means.

Chanting the Holy Names Destroys the Results of Past Sins

In Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (6.2.46) it is said:

"Therefore one who desires freedom from material bondage should adopt the process of chanting and glorifying the name, fame, form, and pastimes of the Supreme Personality of Godhead, at whose feet all the holy places stand. One cannot derive the proper benefit from other methods, such as pious atonement, speculative knowledge, and meditation in mystic yoga, because even after following such methods one takes to fruitive activities again, unable to control his mind, which is contaminated by the base qualities of nature, namely passion and ignorance."*

In Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (3.33.7), Devahūti tells Lord Kapiladeva:

"Oh, how glorious are they whose tongues are chanting Your holy name! Even if born in the families of dogeaters, such persons are worshipable. Persons who chant the holy name of Your Lordship must have executed all kinds of austerities and fire-sacrifices and achieved all the good manners of the Aryans. To be chanting the holy name of Your Lordship, they must have bathed at holy places of pilgrimage, studied the Vedas and fulfilled everything required."*

In Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (6.3.24) it is said:

"Therefore it should be understood that one is easily relieved from all sinful reactions by chanting the holy name of the Lord and chanting of His qualities and activities. This is the only process recommended for relief from sinful reactions. Even if one chants the holy name of the Lord with improper pronunciation, he will achieve relief from material bondage if he chants without offenses. Ajāmila, for example, was extremely sinful, but while dying he merely chanted the holy name, and although calling his son, he achieved complete liberation because he remembered the name of Nārāyaṇa."*

The brāhmaṇas, kṣatriyas, vaiśyas, śūdras, and all others who are pious, from the age of eight years and older, should observe this vow of Janmāṣṭamī.

Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī comments:

The same is true for observing ekādaśī. In the scriptures it is said:

aṣṭa-varṣādhiko bālaḥ

"Children eight years and older should also observe ekādaśī."

Offenses in This Vow

First, the Offense of Eating

In the Śrī Viṣṇu-rahasya, Brahmā tells Nārada:

By eating on Jayantī one commits a sin equal to the sin of eating a śūdra's food or eating the food in the hand of a corpse.

A country where the day of My birth is always shown in pictures and anointed with sandal paste becomes beautiful with all the ornaments of spiritual life. It becomes a great festival. It is worshiped by all.

Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī comments

If the word "likhitam" is interpreted to mean "written" and "carcitam" to mean "studied", then the first phrase of this verse may be interpreted to mean, "a country where the day of My birth is always written in many books and studied with care".

star Rohiṇī is conjoined with the moon. In that situation one should fast and observe the vow on the pure navami instead of on the ṣṭamī.

sa-kalā-with kala; api-even; sa-ṛkṣā-with the star; api-even; navamī-samyutā-with the navami; api-even; ca-and;
janmāṣṭamī-Janmāṣṭamī; pūrva-by the previous day; viddhā-viddhq; na-not; kartavyā-to be done; kadācana-ever.

Even if it is sa-kalā and even if the star Rohiṇī is conjoined with the moon, Janmāṣṭamī should never be observed on an ṣṭamī that is viddha by the previous day.

Text 367

palavedhe tu viprendra

palavedhe-for a moment; tu-but; viprendra-O king of brahmanas; saptamyā-with the saptami; ca-and; ṣṭamīm-ṣṭamī;

tyajet-sghould abandon; surayā-with wine; bindunā-with adrop; spr̥ṣtam-touched; gaṅgāmbhaḥ-kalasaṃ-a pot of Ganges water; yathā-as.

As one should reject a pitcher of Ganges water that has been touched by a single drop of liquor, so one should reject a Janmāṣṭamī touched for even a moment by the saptamī.

Text 368

Even if the star Rohiṇī is not conjoined with the moon, one should observe the Janmāṣṭamī that is touched by the navamī. But, even if the star Rohiṇī is conjoined with the moon, one should not observe the Janmāṣṭamī that is touched by the saptamī.

tasmāt-there; sarva-prayatnena-with all care; tyājyam-to be avoided; eva-in deed; aśubham-inauspicious; budhaiḥ-by the wise; vedhe-a moment; puṇya-of piety; kṣayam-destruction; yāti-attains; tamaḥ-darkness; sūrya-of the sun; udaye-in the rising; yathā-as.

Therefore the wise should carefully avoid celebrating Janmāṣṭamī at that inauspicious time. By celebrating at that time all one's piety is at once destroyed in the same way the darkness of night is destroyed when the sun rises.

In the Yājñavalkya-smṛti it is said:

Even if the star Rohiṇī is perfectly conjoined with the moon in the middle of the night, an aṣṭamī that is vidhā by the previous day should not be celebrated.

yat-what; ca-and; vahni-puraṇādau-in the Agni Purāṇa and other scriptures; proktaṁ-said; viddhāṣṭamī-vratam-an aṣṭamī that is viddha; avaiṣṇava-param-not dear to the Vaiṣṇavas; tat-that; ca-and; kṛtaṁ-done; tat-that; deva-māyayā-by the illusory potency of the Lord.

In the Agni Purāṇa and other scriptures it is said that the aṣṭamī that is viddha in this way is not dear to the Vaiṣṇavas. Such an aṣṭamī is a creation of the Lord's illusory potency, māyā.

In the Skanda Purāṇa it is said:

Fearing that they would fall from their exalted posts, in ancient times the demigods and sages carefully avoided observing this vow on an aṣṭamī viddha by the saptamī.

kevala-kṛṣṇopāsanā-śāstre-scripture describing pure devotional service to Lord Kṛṣṇa; gautamīya-tantre-in the Gautamiya Tantra; tantra-Tantric; dikṣām-initiation; uddīśya-in relation to; yathā-as; uktam-said; atha-then; bhādra-of the month of Bhadra; asita-in the Kṛṣṇa-pakṣa; āṣṭamīyām-on the āṣṭamī; prādurāsīt-appeared; svayam-personally; hariḥ-Lord Kṛṣṇa; brahmaṇā-by Brahmā; prārthitaḥ-requested; pūrvam-previously; devakyām-in Devakī; kṛpayā-mercifully; vibhuḥ-the Supreme Personality of Godhead; rohiṇy-ṛkṣe-the star Rohiṇī; śubha-tithau-on the auspicious day; daityānām-of the demigods; nāśa-hetave-for destruction; mahotsavam-a great festival; prakurvīta-should do; yatnatas-carefully; tad-dine-on that day; śubhe-auspicious.

In the Gautamiya Tantra, which describes pure devotional service to Lord Kṛṣṇa, in the course of describing Vaiṣṇava tantric initiation, it is said:

On the demigod Brahmā's request, Lord Kṛṣṇa, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, mercifully appeared in the womb of Devakī on the kṛṣṇa-pakṣa āṣṭamī of the month Bhādra, an auspicious day when the star Rohiṇī was conjoined with the moon. The Lord's mission then was to kill the demons. One should carefully celebrate a great festival on that auspicious day.

somāhni-Monday; budha-vāre-on Wednesday; vā-or; ca-and; aṣṭamī-the aṣṭamī; rohiṇī-yutā-with Rohiṇī; jayantī-Jayantī; nāma-named; sā-that; khyātā-called; tam-that; labhet-attains; puṇya-sañcayaiḥ-with great piety.

When the aṣṭamī falls on a Monday or Wednesday when the star Rohiṇī is conjoined with the moon, that day is called Jayantī. That day brings great piety.

Text 381

aṣṭamī-aṣṭamī; navamī-viddhā-viddha by the navami; umā-maheśvarī-tithiḥ-the day of Goddess Umā; sa-that; eva-indeed; upoṣyā-to be fasted; sadā-always; puṇya-piety; kaṅkṣibhiḥ-by they who desire; rohiṇīm-Rohiṇī; vinā-without.

The aṣṭamī viddha by the navamī is also sacred to Goddess Umā. They who desire piety should fast on that day, even if the star Rohiṇī is not conjoined with the moon.

Text 383

para-viddhā sadā kāryā

para-viddhā-viddha by the following day; sadā-always; kāryā-to be observed; pūrva-viddhām-viddha by the previous day; tu-but; varjayet-should avoid; aṣṭamī-aṣṭamī; saptamī-viddhā-viddha by the saptami; hanyāt-destroys; puṇyam-piety; purā-kṛtam-previous acquired.

One should observe the Janmāṣṭamī that is vidhā by the following day and one should not observe it when it is vidhā by the previous day. When it is vidhā by the previous day, the aṣṭamī destroys one's previously acquired piety.

brahma-hatyā-phalam-the result of killing a brahmana; dadyāt-gives; hari-vaimukhya-kāraṇāt-from being averse to Lord Kṛṣṇa; kevalas-only; tu-indeed; arkṣa-yogena-with the star; upavāsa-sthitim-fasting; vinā-without; na-not; yacchati-gives; śubham-auspiciousness; kāryam-to be done; munibhiḥ-by the sages; parikīrtitam-glorified.

One who, because he is averse to Lord Kṛṣṇa, does not observe a fast on the Janmāṣṭamī when the star Rohiṇī is conjoined with the moon attains the sinful reaction of murdering a brāhmaṇa. He does not attain the pious benefits described by the sages.

atra-here; kāraṇam-the reason; yathā-as; uktam-said; bhoja-rājīye-in the Bhoja-rajiya; aṣṭamyām-on the aṣṭamī; pūjayet-should worship; śambhum-Śambhu; navamyām-on the navamī; śaktiḥ-Śakti; ijjate-is worshiped; tayor-of them; yoge-in the meeting; tu-indeed; samprāpte-attained; dvayoḥ-of them both; puṣā-worship; mahā-phalā-great result; iti-thus.

The reason this is so is given in the following words of the Bhoja-rājīya:

On the aṣṭamī one should worship Lord Śiva, and on the navamī one should worship his potency. When these two holy days meet, the performance of worship brings a great result.

The passage beginning with the word "kevalam" declares that this day is also called Umā-maheśvarī-tithi. Therefore one should fast on this day (the aṣṭamī that is viddha by the navamī).

Text 390

api-śabdaḥ-the word api; tu-indeed; tatra-there; syāt-is; yad-uktam-said; rohiṇīm-Rohiṇī; vinā-without; tasmāt-therefore; atra-here; api-even; saptamyā-by the saptamī; viddha-viddha; aṣṭamī-the aṣṭamī; eva-indeed; varjitā-to be avoided.

The word "api" here means "even if the star Rohiṇī is not conjoined with the moon." However, the aṣṭamī should not be observed when it is viddha by the saptamī.

Text 391

daśamī-vedha-yogena-with the touch of the dasami; śuddham-pure; hi-indeed; dvādaśī-vratam-dvadasi vow; saptamy-a-not; vedha-vedhokti-vyavasthā-with the saptami; yā-which; kṛtā-done; paraiḥ-by others; nirastā-rejected; sā-that; purā-in ancient times; devaiḥ-by the devas; iti-thus; ādi-beginning; vacasaḥ-of words; balāt-by the power.

A dvādaśī that is viddhā by the daśamī is still pure. However, an aṣṭamī that is viddhā by the saptamī is rejected. This is confirmed by the passage beginning with the words "nirastā sā purā devaiḥ".

In both the Agni Purāṇa and the Viṣṇu-dharma Purāṇa, Uttara-khaṇḍa, it is said:

There are two classes of men in the created world. One consists of the demoniac and the other of the godly. The devotees of Viṣṇu are the godly, whereas those who are just the opposite are called demons.*

Yājñavalkya explains:

When auspicious tithis are connected to auspicious stars one should break his fast at the time when the star's conjunction with the moon ends. The star Rohiṇī is an exception to this rule.

The Worship Begins

Thus one should make a beautiful picture. Then one should devotedly worship Devakī, who has recently given birth to Lord Kṛṣṇa. One should worship her with fragrances, flowers, fruits, unbroken grains, kuṣmaṇḍas, coconuts, kharjūras, pomegranates, vījapūras, betelnuts, oranges, panasas, with sweet and delicious fruits in season, and with fragrant flowers. Then one should meditate on the previously described incarnations. Then one should worship Devakī with the following mantra.

Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī comments

The phrase "previously described incarnations" refers to Devakī's incarnation as Aditi, and the other like incarnations already described.

In the Bhaviṣya Purāṇa, Uttara-khaṇḍa, it is said:

When the star Śravaṇa is conjoined with the moon on this ekādaśī, the day is called vijayā ekādaśī, for it brings victory (vijaya) to the devotees.

viṣṇu-purāṇe-in the Viṣṇu Purana; yāḥ-who; kāścit-someone; tithayaḥ-days; proktāḥ-said; puṇyā-sacred; nakṣatra-yogataḥ-with the star; tāsu-in them; eva-indeed; tad-vratam-thqat vow; kuryāt-should do; śravaṇa-dvādaśīm-śravaṇa-dvādaśī; vinā-without; iti-thus.

In the Viṣṇu Purāṇa it is said:

Śravaṇa-dvādaśī is not usually counted among the various holy days with auspicious stars. (That is because it is considered to be included in the previous ekādaśī).

prādurbhūte-born; hi-indeed; bhagavān-the Supreme Personality of Godhead; dvādaśyām-on dvadasi; eva-indeed;
vāmanaḥ-Lord Vāmana.

On that ekādaśī one should fast, and on the dvādaśī one should worship Lord Kṛṣṇa. This is so because Lord Vāmana appeared in this world on that dvādaśī.

Text 596

Śrī Viṣṇu-śṛṅkhala-yoga

In the Matsya Purāṇa it is said:

When a dvādaśī touched by Śravaṇa touches this ekādaśī, that day is very sacred to Lord Viṣṇu. That day is called Śrī Viṣṇu-śrīkhala-yoga.

Text 599

The word "ekādaśī" here refers to both the day and the night. Were this not so, the touch of the dvādaśī would almost never occur.

If Śravaṇa is conjoined with the moon, it is best to break the fast on the dvādaśī. If Śravaṇa is not conjoined with the moon, the vow may be observed in two ways, as has already been described. More will be said of this later.

The first line of text 589 may also be read "dvādaśī śravaṇarākṣam ca" (dvādaśī and the star Śravaṇa). Thus the touch of dvādaśī and the star Śravaṇa is described. This is for the same reason as given previously.

The Second Śrī Viṣṇu-śṛṅkhala-yoga

In the Śrī Viṣṇu-dharma Purāṇa, Uttara-khaṇḍa, it is said:

When ekādaśī, dvādaśī, and the star Śravaṇa combine in a single day, that day is called Śrī Viṣṇu-śṛṅkhala-yoga. That day brings Viṣṇu-sāyujya liberation. By fasting on that day one goes to the eternal realm of Śvetadvīpa.

To fast on the dvādaśī and break the fast on the trayodaśī breaks the special yoga of the dvādaśī in this situation. When the star Śravaṇa is present on ekādaśī it is also forbidden to break the fast on the trayodaśī.

A Different Kind of Situation in Śrī Viṣṇu-śrīṅkhala-yoga

When dvādaśī, ekādaśī, Wednesday, and the star Śravaṇa meet in a single day, that meeting is called deva-dundubhi-yoga. That day gives a pious result equal to ten thousand yajñas.

Text 608

One may break the fast on a dvādaśī with Śravaṇa. One may not break the fast at night. One may observe the vow of fasting on both ekādaśī and dvādaśī.

Text 609

na-not; ca-and; atra-here; vidhi-of rules; lopaḥ-omission; syāt-is; ubhayor-of both; devatā-the Deity; hariḥ-Lord Kṛṣṇa.

There is no fault in fasting on both days, for Lord Hari is the presiding Deity of both these days.

Text 610

trayodaśyām tu pārāṇam

dvādaśyām-on dvadasi; upavāsaḥ-fasting; atra-in this situation; trayodaśyām-onm trayodasi; tu-indeed; pārāṇam-breaking the fast.

In this situation one may fast on dvādaśī and break the fast in trayodaśī.

Text 611

If the star Śravaṇa is not conjoined with the moon on either ekādaśī or dvādaśī, then there is no yoga. In that situation one should fast on ekādaśī and worship Lord Vāmana on the dvādaśī.

Even when there is a Śrī Viṣṇu-śṛṅkhāla-yuga and both the tithi and Śavaṇa are present at night, then it is best to fast, if one is able, on both days.

Text 613

However, it is not proper to break the fast at night. If one is not able to fast on both days, in this situation one should fast on the dvādaśī, for then the yoga is more important.

atha-now; tatra-there; pāraṇa-kāla-nirṇayaḥ-the time of breaking the fast; sa-that; ca-and; vrata-vikalpe-in the decision to follow the vow; dvitiye-second; viṣṇu-śrīkhale-in the Viṣṇu-śrīkhala; ca-and; spaṣṭa-clear; eva-indeed; kevala-śravaṇa-niskarṣe-in the drawing our of Sravana; tu-indeed; na-not; tad-ādarah-worship of that; tithi-nakṣatra-yoge-in the yoga of tithi and star; iti-thus; ādi-beginning; vakṣyamānebhyah-which will be spoken.

The Time of Breaking the Fast

In the Second Śrī Viṣṇu-śrīkhala this is clear. However, when the star Śravaṇa is not conjoined with the moon this is not so. This will be discussed in the verse beginning with the words "tithi-nakṣatra-samyoge".

Text 615

prathama-viṣṇu-śrīkhale-First Viṣṇu-śrīkhala; pāraṇa-nirṇayaḥ-time of breaking the fast; anuvṛttih-following; dvayor-of both; eva-indeed; pāraṇāhe-on the day of breaking the fast; bhavet-is; yadi-if; tatra-there; ādhikye-more; tithēḥ-of the tithi; vṛtte-engaged; bhā-ante-in the end of the star; sati-is; eva-indeed; pāraṇam-breaking the fast.

The Time of Breaking the Fast After the First Viṣṇu-śrīkhala:

It is best to break the fast on the next day, after both the tithi and star-conjunction have ended.

Text 616

yad uktam nāradiye

tithi-nakṣatrayor yoge

yat-what; uktam-said; nāradiye-in the Narada Purana; tithi-nakṣatrayor-of the tithi and the star; yoge-in conjunction; upavāsaḥ-fasting; bhavet-is; yadā-when; pāraṇam-breaking the fast; tu-indeed; na-not; kartavyam-to be done; yāvan-when; na-nor; ekasya-of one; saṅkṣayaḥ-the end; iti-thus.

This is described in the following words of the Nārada Purāṇa:

When the tithi and the star are both present, one should fast. One should not break the fast until at least one of these has ended.

Text 617

r̥kṣasya sati cādhikye
tithi-madhye tu pāraṇam
dvādaśi-laṅghane doṣo
bahuśo likhito yataḥ

r̥kṣasya-of the star; sati-being so; ca-and; ādhikye-better; tithi-madhye-in the middle of the day; tu-indeed; pāraṇam-breaking the fast; dvādaśi-dvadasi; laṅghane-jumping over; doṣaḥ-fault; bahuśaḥ-great; likhitaḥ-written; yataḥ-because.

If the star is still conjoined by the middle of the dvādaśī, one should break the fast then, for the scriptures affirm that it is a great fault not to break the fast on dvādaśī.

Text 618

tathā cōktaṃ

tithi-nakṣatra-samyoge

tathā-so; ca-and; uktam-said; tithi-nakṣatra-samyoge-in the junction of tithi and star; upavāsaḥ-fasting; yadā-when; bhavet-is; tavat-then; eva-indeed; na-not; bhoktavyam-to be eaten; yāvan-when; na-not; ekasya-of one; saṅkṣayaḥ-end.

It is said:

One should fast when the tithi and star are both present. One should not break his fast until at least one of the two has ended.

Text 619

viśeṣena mahī-pāla

viśeṣena-specifically; mahī-pāla-O king; śravaṇam-sravan; vardhate-increases; yadi-if; tithi-kṣayena-by ending the tithi; bhoktavyam-to be eaten; dvādaśīm-dvadasī; na-not; eva-indeed; laṅghayet-should overlock; iti-thus.

O king, this is especially so when the star Śravaṇa is prominent. One should fast when the tithi has ended. One should not ignore the presence of the dvādaśī.

Text 620

evaṃ dvayor niśa-vyāptau
cāhni pāraṇam īritam
na rātrau pāraṇam kuryād

evaṃ-thus; dvayor-of both; niśa-vyāptau-extending in the night; ca-and; ahni-in the day; pāraṇam-breaking the fast; īritam-said; na-not; rātrau-at night; pāraṇam-breaking the fast; kuryāt-should do; iti-thus; hi-indeed; anyatra-in another place; sammatam-concluded.

When both are present at night, one should break the fast on the following day. One should not break the fast at night. That is also confirmed in other scriptures.

Text 621

yato rātrāv ṛkṣa-labdhāv
api dvādaśy-atikramaḥ
ataḥ kṛtaṃ paunar-uktyaṃ

yataḥ-when; rātrāu-at night; ṛkṣa-labdhāu-attainment of the star; api-also; dvādaśy-atikramaḥ-beyond dvadasī; ataḥ-then; kṛtam-done; paunar-uktyam-again said; dvādaśīm-dvadasi; na-not; eva-indeed; laṅghayet-should jump over.

When the star is present the whole night and is still present during dvādaśī, one should not neglect the dvādaśī. On dvādaśī the fast should be broken. This is said again and again.

Text 622

eva-kāreṇa ca punas

dvādaśy-anādarō nātaḥ
kāryo bhasya tu sa smṛtaḥ

eva-kāreṇa-by the word eva; ca-and; punaḥ-again; tat-that; eva-indeed; niradhāri-accepts; yat-what; dvādaśy-anādarah-disrespecting the dvadasi; na-not; ataḥ-then; kāryaḥ-to be don; bhasya-of the star; tu-indeed; sa-that; smṛtaḥ-considered.

The word "eva" (indeed) in this verse emphasizes that one should not disrespect the dvādaśī, even if the star is still present.

Text 623

tathā-so; ca-and; skānde-in the Skanda Purana; yaḥ-who; kāscit-someone; tithayaḥ-days; proktaḥ-said; puṇyā-holy; nakṣatra-yogataḥ-with stars; ṛkṣānte-at the end of the stars; pāraṇam-breaking the fast; kuryāt-should do; vinā-without; śravaṇa-rohiṇīm-Sravaṇa and Rohini. iti..

In the Skanda Purāṇa it is said:

When special star-moon conjunctions occur during holy days, one should break the fast after the stellar conjunction has ended. However, the stars Śravaṇa and Rohiṇi provide exceptions to this rule.

Text 624

yato rātri-gato dvādaśy-

yataḥ-when; rātri-gataḥ-at night; dvādaśī-of dvadasi; amśaḥ-a part; na-not; atra-here; vicāryate-is considered; ataḥ-then; vardhata-increases; iti-thus; āha-said; pāraṇa-of breaking the fast; asamayātyayam-past the time.

The time when not even a part of the dvādaśī is present at night is not considered here. That time is called "atovardhate". That is past the time for breaking the fast.

Text 625

trayodaśyām pāraṇam tu

trayodaśyām-on trayodasi; pāraṇam-breaking the fast; tu-indeed; na-not; etat-this; viśayam-the range of perception; iśyate-is; trayodaśyām-on trayodasi; api-also; iti-thus; etat-this; anukteḥ-not from the statement; advidhā-not two; smṛtaḥ-considered.

One should not break the fast on the trayodaśī. This is not confirmed by the words of scripture.

Text 626

praty utātra tu-śabdena

praty uta-however; atra-here; tu-śabdena-with the word tu; tasya-of that; ekadhyam-one; pradarśitam-shown; paryavasyet-should conclude; ataḥ-then; yuktyā-properly; dvādaśī-kṣaya-the edn of dvadasi; eva-indeed; tat-that.

Here the word "tu" (indeed) shows that one should properly observe the end of dvādaśī.

Text 627

tathāpi sandihānaś ced

pāraṇāyāḥ param samyak pūrakam tad bhaved yataḥ

tathāpi-still; sandihānaḥ-doubt; cet-if; grhṇīyāt-should accept; caraṇāmṛtam-the water that has washed the feet of the Deit

If there is doubt about whether the fast should be broken at that time, one may accept caraṇāmṛta, the water that has washed the feet of the Deity.

Text 628

gautamiye-in the Gautamiya Tantra; tu-indeed; tu-indeed; sphuṭam-clear; eva-indeed; uktamsaid; yad-ṛkṣam-the star; vā-or; tithiḥ-the tithi; vā-or; api-also; rātrim-the night; vyāpya-extending; vyavasthitā-situated; divase-on the day; pāraṇam-breaking the fast; kuryāt-should do; anyathā-otherwise; patanam-falling down; bhavet-may be; iti-thus.

In the Gautamiya Tantra it is said:

When the star or tithi are present during the night, one should break the fast on the following day. Otherwise one will fall down.

atha-now; śrī-vāmana-vrata-vidhiḥ-the method of following the vow for Lord Vāmana; natvā-bowing; gurum-to the spiritual master; anujñāpya-asking for permission; paścāt-then; niyamam-the rules; ācaret-should follow; na-not; hi-indeed; sidhyet-is perfect; guroḥ-to the spiritual master; bhaktim-devotion; niyamam-rules; ca-and; vinā-without; phalam-result.

The Method of Following the Vow To Please Lord Vāmana

First one should bow down before one's spiritual master and ask permission to follow this vow. Without devotion to the spiritual master this vow will not bear its fruit.

One should worship different forms of the Lord on the different limbs of Lord Vāmana. At Lord Vāmana's feet one should worship Lord Matsya. At His knees one should worship Lord Kūrma, at His loins Lord Varāha, at His navel Lord Nṛsiṁha, on His chest Lord Vāmana, under His arms Lord Paraśurāma, on both His arms Lord Rāmacandra, on His head Lord Kṛṣṇa, and on all His limbs Buddha and Kalki. Then one should also worship the weapons of the Lord.

Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmi comments:

The first mantra here is "oṁ matsyāya namaḥ pādayoḥ". The other mantras follow this prototype. The mantra for the weapons is "oṁ sarvebhya āyudhebhyo namaḥ".

Translator's note: The mantras then become: 1. oṁ matsyāya namaḥ pādayoḥ, 2. oṁ kūrmyā namo jānunoḥ, 3. oṁ varāhāya namo guhye, 4. oṁ narasiṁhāya namo nābhyām, 5. oṁ vāmanāya nama urasi, 5. oṁ rāmāya namaḥ kakṣayoḥ, 6. oṁ rāmāya namo bhujayoḥ, 7. oṁ kṛṣṇāya namo mūrdhni, 8. oṁ buddha-kalkibhyām namaḥ sarvāṅgeṣu, and 9. oṁ sarvebhya āyudhebhyo namaḥ.

The Glories of Observing the Kārttika Vow in Certain Specific Places

In the Padma Purāṇa it is said:

"Wherever one may be, by bathing, giving charity, or especially by worshipping the Lord during the month of Kārttika one attains the result of performing an agnihotra-yajña.

"I offer my humble obeisances to the Supreme Controller, who possesses an eternal form of blissful knowledge, whose earrings glisten, who manifested Himself in Gokula, who ran from the wooden mortar in fear of Mother Yaśodā but was ultimately caught, . . .

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

Offering my respectful obeisances to Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Dāmodara, I will now comment on the Dāmodarāṣṭaka. In the beginning of this prayer the author offers his respectful obeisances as with devotion he describes the great treasure that is the form of the Supreme Personality of Godhead, which was manifested in Gokula, and which is glorious with the most excellent handsomeness, pastimes, virtues, and other qualities.

What is the Supreme Personality of Godhead like? He is "īśvara", which means "all-powerful", "the master of the universes", or "my master". His form is eternal and full of knowledge and bliss. He is handsome and attractive.

The gopīs describe His handsomeness in these words (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 10.29.40):

trailokya-saubhagam idaṁ ca nirikṣya rūpaṁ yad go-dvija-druma-mṛgāḥ pulakāny abibhṛan

"O Kṛṣṇa, even the cows, birds, trees, and deer become stunned in ecstasy when they gaze at Your form, the most handsome in all the three worlds."

Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (3.2.12) again explains:

vismāpanaṁ svasya ca saubhagarddheḥ
paraṁ padaṁ bhūṣaṇa-bhūṣānāṅgam

"The Lord appeared in this mortal world by His internal potency, yogamāyā. He came in His eternal form, which is just suitable for His pastimes. These pastimes were wonderful for everyone, even for those proud of their own opulence, including the Lord Himself as the Lord of Vaikuṅṭha. Thus His (Śrī Kṛṣṇa's) transcendental body is the ornament of all ornaments."*

Lord Kṛṣṇa's alki-attractive form was splendidly manifest in Gokula, where many cows, gopas, and gopīs lived. Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (10.32.14) explains:

cakāsa gopī-parīṣad-gato 'rcitas trailokya-lakṣmy-eka-padaṁ vapur dadhat

"Worshiped by the gopīs, Lord Kṛṣṇa's transcendental form, the only home of all glory and handsomeness in the three worlds, was splendidly manifest."

The specific pastime described in this verse of Dāmodarāṣṭaka, where Lord Kṛṣṇa broke the yogurt pot and fled in fear of Mother Yaśodā, is described these words of Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (10.9.8-9):

ulūkhalaṅghrer upari vyavasthitam markāya kāmam dadatam śici sthitam haiyaṅgavam caurya-viśaṅkitekṣaṇam nirikṣya paścāt sutam āgamac chanaiḥ

"Kṛṣṇa, at that time, was sitting on an upside-down wooden mortar for grinding spices and was distributing milk preparations, such as yogurt and butter, to the monkeys as he liked. Because of having stolen He was looking all around with great anxiety, suspecting that He might be chastised by His mother. Mother Yaśodā, upon seeing Him, very cautiously approached Him from behind."*

tām ātta-yaṣṭim prasamīkṣya sa-tvaras tato 'varuhyāpasāra bhītavat gopy anvadhāvan na yam āpa yoginām

kṣamaṁ praveṣṭuṁ tapaseritaṁ manaḥ

"When Lord Kṛṣṇa saw His mother, stick in hand, He very quickly got down from the top of the mortar and began to flee as if very much afraid. Although yogīs try to capture Him as Paramātmā by meditation, desiring to enter into the effulgence of the Lord with great austerities and penances, they fail to reach Him. But Mother Yaśodā, thinking that same Supreme Personality of Godhead, Kṛṣṇa, to be her son, began following Kṛṣṇa to catch Him."*

Then Mother Yaśodā chased Lord Kṛṣṇa and caught Him from behind. Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (10.9.10) explains:

avañcamānā jananī bṛhac-calacchroṇi-bharākrānta-gatiḥ su-madhyamā javena visraṁsita-keśa-bandhana-cyuta-prasūnānugatiḥ parāmṛṣat

"While following Kṛṣṇa, Mother Yaśodā, her thin waist overburdened by her heavy breasts, naturally had to reduce her speed. Because of following Kṛṣṇa very swiftly, her hair became loose, and the flowers in her hair were falling after her. Yet she did not fail to capture her son Kṛṣṇa."*

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

This pastime is described in the following words (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (10.9.11):

kṛtāgasāṁ taṁ prarudantaṁ akṣiṇī

Mother Yaśodā, catching her beautiful son by the hand, mildly began to chastise Him."*

Mother Yaśodā then bound Him with a rope. Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (10.9.14) explains:

"Mother Yaśodā, considering Kṛṣṇa her own ordinary child, bound Him to the wooden mortar with a rope."*

Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (10.9.18-21) continues:

conquered by My loving devotees.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

That Lord Kṛṣṇa is controlled by the love of His devotees is described in the following words of Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (10.11.7-8):

gopibhiḥ stobhito 'nṛtyad
bhagavān bālavat kvacit
udgāyati kvacin mugdhas
tad-vaśo dāru-yantravat

"The gopīs would say: 'If You dance, my dear Kṛṣṇa, then I shall give You half a sweetmeat.' By saying these words or by clapping their hands, all the gopīs encouraged Kṛṣṇa in different ways. At such times, although He was the supremely powerful Personality of Godhead, he would smile and dance according to their desire, as if He were a wooden doll in their hands. Sometimes he would sing very loudly, at their bidding. In this way Kṛṣṇa came completely under the control of the gopīs.*

bibharti kvacid ajñāptaḥ

"Sometimes Mother Yaśodā and her gopī friends would tell Kṛṣṇa, 'Bring this article' or 'Bring that article.' Sometimes they would order Him to bring a wooden plank, wooden shoes, or a wooden measuring pot, and Kṛṣṇa, when thus ordered by the mothers, would try to bring them. Sometimes, however, as if unable to raise these things, He would touch them and stand there. Just to invite the pleasure of his relatives, He would strike His body with His arms to show that He had sufficient strength."*

Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (10.11.9) again says:

darśayaṁs tad-vidān loka
ātmano bhṛtya-vaśyatām

"To pure devotees throughout the world who could understand His activities, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Kṛṣṇa, exhibited how much He can be subdued by His devotees, His servants."*

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

The thing better than liberation here is residence in Vaikuṅṭhaloka. Better than impersonal liberation is residence in Vaikuṅṭhaloka, and better than residence in Vaikuṅṭhaloka is pure devotional service, which begins with hearing the glories of Lord Kṛṣṇa. That pure devotional service is better than residence in Vaikuṅṭhaloka is described in the following words (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 3.15.49):

"O Lord, we pray that You let us be born in any hellish condition of life, just as long as our hearts and minds are always engaged in the service of Your lotus feet, our words are made beautiful by speaking of Your activities just as tulasi leaves are beautified when offered unto Your lotus feet, and as long as our ears are always filled with the chanting of Your transcendental qualities."*

Lord Kṛṣṇa's face is like a blossoming lotus flower. It is blissful and the sight of it removes all sufferings.

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

Here the author says that he is so distressed that he is on the verge of death. He is like a living corpse. He says: "Please be kind to me! Please rescue me! Please restore my life!"

Here the word "prabho" (O master) means "O master of great, inconceivable, limitless, wonderful potencies!" This shows that the Lord's potencies cannot be understood by the material senses. The word "īśa" (O master) means "O supremely independent one!" This shows that the Lord can do as He likes, and therefore He can bestow His mercy even on a person who is not really worthy to receive it. The word "viṣṇo" means "O all-pervading one!" or it also means "O Lord who stays in Vṛndāvana!"

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

Here, rejecting impersonal liberation, the author prays for pure devotional service. Even though, as part of His beautiful pastimes, the Lord Himself was tied up by the gopī Yaśodā, He was able to free the sons of Kuvera. Giving them the gift of pure devotional service, He said to them (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 10.10.42):

"O Nalakūvara and Maṇigrīva, now you may both return home. Since you desire to be always absorbed in My devotional service, your desire to develop love and affection for Me will be fulfilled, and now you will never fall from that platform."*

nces to Your beloved, Śrī Rādhā! Obeisances to You, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, whose pastimes have no end!"

Commentary by Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī

Here the word "dhāmne" means "the great rope that was tied around Your belly". What was that rope like? It is described here as "the abode of splendor". That means the rope was spiritual in nature.

Next the author says, "Obeisances to Your belly!" What is the Lord's belly like? It is the resting place of the universe, where the moving and unmoving beings live. This is so because from it sprouted the lotus flower that is the home of the fourteen worlds. By tying a rope around this belly, Mother Yaśodā showed that she had the entire universe under her control. Actually no one has the power to tie up the Lord in that way, but out of love for His mother, Lord Kṛṣṇa allowed her to tie Him up.

Śrī Rādhā is the most important of all the gopīs. She is most dear to Lord Kṛṣṇa. Lord Kṛṣṇa's transcendental pastimes with Śrī Rādhā have no end. Therefore the Lord is described here as having pastimes that have no end.
